A Taste of Nyonya Heritage

Preserving Their Peranakan Roots

FANS of Peranakan cuisine need not travel far to find good Nyonya food.

Located in the heart of SS2, Petaling Jaya is BibiChik Restaurant, a family business, that has been serving authentic Nyonya cuisine to customers for two decades.

BibiChik opened in January 1996 after a family member decided to venture into the restaurant business in an effort to preserve their Peranakan roots.

The Nyonya dishes served here are a delight to the taste buds and offer homely and appetising food, bringing to mind mum's cooking.

The family business, managed by generations, has stood the test of time, attributing their continued popularity to the restaurant's home-made dishes.

BibiChik has been around since 1996. It is located in SS2, Petaling Jaya.

Some customers who come here have Peranakan roots and they miss the food. In addition, most of the dishes are made from scratch, including the sambal and sauces.

Among their signature dishes, perut ikan, is a traditional Nyonya dish prepared with garoupa fish stomach.

This speciality is cooked with 13 types of finely chopped herbs and definitely leaves an impression.

The dish is both sweet, salty and sour, reminiscent of asam-style broth and goes very well with plain white rice.

Honey Sotong – squid coated in crispy batter, drizzled with a sweet sauce and sprinkled sesame seeds – is also popular and a favourite with children and the elderly.

The honeyed sweetness from the sauce and the crunchy savouriness of the batter go well together.

Another noteworthy dish is the Lemak Nanas Prawns. In this creamy favourite, diners will find large prawns, pineapple, winged beans and other ingredients in tantalising coconut milk broth.

The aromatic broth complements the prawn's sweetness while the beans are still crisp as they are added in last.

Other notable dishes are Mango Fish, Petai Prawns, steamed and grilled otak-otak and crispy brinjal.
